that the ferry under notice was unquestionably one that received special treatment under the Proceedings of the late Govt No 9H-19 dated 19th May 1880. Para 89 Those Proceedings leave no room for doubting (1) that the ferries in Mysore were formerly worked by hereditary Ambigars (2) that Govt resumed the right of the Ambigars & ordered the right to ferry to be sold by public competition 4/1875 & (3) that on a representation of the hardship & inconvenience caused by such resumption the hereditary Ambigar System was restored. A comparison of the form of license enjoyed in the above Pro & with the one granted to Petitioner would have obviated the necessity for several of the ingenious arguments advanced by the Dr Comr to prove that there could have been no permanent lease granted

The Coincidence of the conditions is not sufficient.

Fix a date for hearing & give notice to Petitioner to prove his hereditary right.

Issues instructions as to the mode in which Ferries in the Mysore and Hassan Districts are to be worked.

Mysore Govt. Press, Bangalore.—25-5-80.—60.

Proceedings of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore in the Revenue Department, (Revenue),—dated 19th May 1880.

READ—

Letter from the Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District, No. 1201, dated 28th October 1879, reporting on the petition from Nanja Bhoyi and other ferrymen at Bannur in the Ashtagram Taluk, complaining of the sale, contrary to custom, of the right of ferrying over the passengers, &c., across the Cauvery river at Bannur.

(2.) Letter from the Deputy Commissioner of the Hassan District, No. 53, dated 1st May 1880, requesting definite instructions as to whether the practice, which obtains in the District, of selling the right of plying boats between opposite banks, where there is no line of road, should be discontinued under the orders conveyed in para 2 of the Chief Commissioner's Proceedings No. 1851-4, dated 3rd June 1875.

No. 911-19—Dn. 89, dated 19th May 1880.

ORDER THEREON.—From the first of the above reports it appears that the ferry on the Cauvery at Bannur (and this is also the case with other ferries in the Mysore District) is worked hereditarily by families of Ambigars or ferrymen, who pay nothing or only a nominal rent to Government, keep their own boats, and ferry passengers for small fees and the villagers and their cattle and goods for an annual customary remuneration in grain at harvest seasons. These arrangements hitherto sufficiently answered the wants of travellers and were especially convenient to the villagers, who, with their cattle, have often to cross the river to cultivate their lands on the opposite side. The local knowledge of the men ensured safety against accidents, whilst the large numbers of families interested enabled them to bring any number of men for the work when required, on occasions of emergency.

2. The system of contract by competition, which was introduced last year with reference to Proceedings dated 3rd June 1875, No. 1851—4, upset these arrangements, and whilst the rent derived was but small, it occasioned serious public inconvenience. The contractors had great difficulty in providing boats and in finding ferrymen. There was considerable detention to passengers and serious inconvenience especially to villagers.

3. These results might have been avoided under proper arrangements, as they are not experienced in other places, such as Hassan District, where the ferries are all rented out. The right of the Government to derive a revenue from the rent of ferries on public streams is one supported by custom and rests on good grounds. But the system of employing hereditary ferrymen has hitherto worked so smoothly and successfully in the Mysore District, that the Chief Commissioner considers it undesirable to disturb it. He, therefore, directs that wherever in the Mysore District the ferries have hitherto been enjoyed by hereditary ferrymen, they be allowed to work the same under the following arrangements:—

(a.) That a moderate annual rent be fixed on the several ferries according to their importance, due regard being had to the expense the ferrymen are put to in finding their own boats. Such rents should be almost nominal in regard to the smaller ferries plying between villages.

(b.) That the hereditary ferrymen be allowed to work and enjoy the ferries on the payment of the above rent and subject to the following conditions:—

(i.) That the ferrymen shall be bound to provide, and keep in good order, at their own cost, such numbers of boats and of such descriptions as may be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner with reference to the requirements of each place.

(ii.) That the required number of men shall always be in readiness to ferry passengers, goods, cattle, or carts without any detention.

(iii.) That they shall not levy higher rates of fees than those laid down for 3rd class ferries in Proceedings dated 3rd June 1875, No. 1851—R. 4.

(iv.) That in regard to the ferrying of villagers, their cattle and goods, the prevailing system of an annual customary remuneration in grain shall not be disturbed.

(v.) That Government officials on duty and all Government articles shall be ferried free of charge.

(vi.) That the Government reserves to itself the right of revising the rent or of resuming the privilege at any time.

(vii.) That the ferrymen shall be provided with a license specifying the above conditions and with a table of fees for the inspection of passengers.

(viii.) That where the ferries are important, the Deputy Commissioner may provide Government ferryboats to be kept in repair by the ferrymen, proportionately raising the rent payable to Government.

The term ferry shall not include boats kept by private individuals, not for the public, but for their own use.

4. In the Hassan District, where the ferries have hitherto been all rented out, the arrangement need not be disturbed, but conditions similar to those above mentioned should be laid down, especially in regard to providing safe and good boats, whether by the Government or by the renters, and to protecting passengers from needless detention and extortion.

5. The Chief Commissioner sees no occasion for the absolute exemption from rent, laid down in Proceedings No. 1851—R. 4, dated 3rd June 1875, of ferries plying between villages which are not situated on any line of road. Some of these appear to be as important as those on the main lines of road, yielding equally large amounts of rent. They may continue to be rented out as heretofore. But where the ferries are unimportant, the system of giving them to hereditary ferrymen on a fixed moderate or nominal rent without an annual competition may be advantageously adopted in the Hassan District also.

6. The proceeds of the ferries being made over to District Funds, the receipts and charges on account of the same will continue to be shewn under that head.

Revenue Secretary.

ABSTRACT.

I had obtained (a licence) on 4 August 1881 from the Dy Comr of Mysore to work the ferry at Chandgal. Ever since that I have been in the uninterrupted enjoyment of the same

2. About 2 or 3 years after my obtaining the above licence Halakatty and others put in a petition offering to pay a higher amount for the right to work the ferry is put to auction.

3. The petitioners received a reply from the Taluk authorities to the effect that it has been let to Thekkedathu Shamanna on a Kandayam of Rs. 100.

4. In accordance with the Proc. No. 900/19 of 19 May 1880 (wrongly quoted for No. 911-19 of 1889 the said date), orders were issued for the plying of boats on this ferry hereditarily on payment of Rs. One hundred (per annum) and I have been carrying on the business.

5. Up to the present time the Villagers have not had any complaint, the Govt. have not found fault and in fact there has been no complaint of any sort against me.

6. The D's Com's in contravention to the Proceedings

The Chief Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore
Bangalore

Sir,

With reference to your official memo No. 4416/646 X of 8/9 June 1892, calling for a report on the petition of Shamnanna, contractor of the Chenbagal ferry in the Yeddatorah Taluk, I have the honor to state that on the application of one Mallanna, of Yeddatorah, dated 30th May 1890, praying for the grant of the right of working the ferry in question for Rupees 150 i.e. for Rupees 50 more than the amount payable by Shamnanna, enquiries were made, and it was ascertained that Shamnanna was not an Ambigar, who had hereditarily enjoyed the right to be treated under the terms of the proceedings of 1880, which is applicable to hereditary ambigars only.

It is reported that the Bestars at Chanagal and Hálual were working the ferry for nearly a hundred years on payment of 3 fanams equal to " — 12 — 6 to Government, and that 18 years ago, the right was sold by public auction, and this system of annual sale continued for 5 or 6 years. After that, in 1881, the right was granted to Petitioner on an annual rent of Rupees 100. — The papers relating to this transaction are not forth-coming. On enquiry from this office the Amildar has reported that the records appear from the registers to have been sent to Mr. Purvis's Court (Assistant Commissioner's Court) and to have not been returned.

X Letter to have been issued from the Local Fund Branch

2. The license issued to the petitioner, and received with the official memo under reply, does not contain any terms giving him a permanent interest in the ferry. In the 1st clause the words "hereditary ambigar or ferryman" have been scored out and there is no conveyance to his heirs or assigns. Though the scoring of the said words has not been initialled there can be no doubt that it must have been made at the time of issuing the li-cense, because it is an admitted fact that Shanmanah had no hereditary claim and because the copy of the same furnish-ed by the Amildar does not contain the said words. Besides under clause 6, of the license, the right to revise the rent or resume the right has been reserved to Government.

3. Shanmania had thus no per-manent lease of the ferry; and, as some other ferries in the same Taluk were recently ordered to be put up to auction annually, and as a ~~D~~ urkhast had been received for this ferry, offering a higher rent, the Amildar was in-structed to sell this also by auction and and secure the best terms for Government without however making any change in the conditions as to fees &c on which the ferry worked hitherto. (8)

4. In the auction Sale one Nanjanna had purchased it for Rupees 250 or 150 per cent more than the rent hitherto paid by Shamanna, paying the usual deposit of 25 per cent, but as he had failed to execute the usual mutchilka, a fresh Sale was ordered. He then appeared and stated that he had been ill for some time and was unable in consequence to execute the mutchilka, and that he had entrusted the concern to Shamanna (petitioner) his maternal Uncle, and that the latter might be permitted to work the ferry.

Orders were issued accordingly. Shamanna having thus taken up the lease for this year must be presumed to have waived any claims he had set up of a hereditary right under the license.
